Gottenborg made a motion to approve the agenda. Fitzsimmons seconded the motion. Motion passed unanimously.

Council Actions Since Last Meeting: none.

RECYCLE BINS : City Cleark did research on having recycling bins in the parks but limited to when festivities are going on only. They will be placed where food is or as near as possible.

TRASH BINS: Wood is starting to show its age. General upkeep will happen when the weather warms up.

SKATE RINK : It's up and ready to go. Advertise for help and once the weather cooperates will open when possible. Discussion on adding more light. Discussion on investigating on updating the hockey boards.

SOCCER FIELD : Damage to the turf and possibly to the irrigation. We will have to wait until the irrigation is turned on to find out.

VETERAN'S MEMORIAL PARK : Trees placed and the Lions club might take down the shelter. Gottenborg will outline the gardens so that we can get estimates for materials. Irey will investigate benches so that they match the rest of the benches in the community. Olson will get estimates for curb and asphalt. Gottenborg noted that people have interest in donating plants. Irey worries about the maintenance Maybe we would get volunteers to help with that. Zierke visited with the Senior Center to inform them of the plans. Additional discussion on adding irrigation. Gottenborg will get estimates on pavers and irrigation. Irey will investigate picnic tables and benches. Olson will work on lights, curb and asphalt.

WELCOME CHAIRS: Magnusson will go around and collect the chairs and put them in storage until spring. She will return to the December meeting to talk about chairs further.
